Michael KUCHLER 05/22/93 ~~00034.BIO~~

Michael Kuchler was probably born in Bavaria. He arrived in Buffalo with his brother Adam about 1836. They both bought property on Washington Street near Goodell Street about 1839. They were both masons.

Michael Kuchler died on June 18, 1843 in Buffalo. His wife, Mary Ann Huber, was born in June 1807, probably in Bavaria. She married Peter Meyer on June 10, 1845 at St. Louis Church in Buffalo.

Their oldest daughter Catharine was born in August 1834 probably in Bavaria, and married Francis Andrle in Buffalo on June 8, 1858.

Their son Michael was born about 1839 in Buffalo. He married Caroline and they moved to Erie, Pennsylvania.

At least three other children, Elisa, Michael, and Wilhelmina died young.

Mary Ann Huber had one daughter by her second husband, Peter Meyer. Louisa Meyer was born March 16, 1846 in Buffalo. She married Philip Dentinger. The Andrle and Dentinger families in Buffalo trace their relationship to half-sisters Catharine Andrle and Louisa Dentinger.

Hi Chris,

This keeps getting better and better! I have been in correspondence with Robert Brantzel Martin of Davenport, Iowa, for several years. One of his Martin relatives was the first wife of Stephen Huber's first child, Barnard (later Benjamin) Huber (later Hubbard) who settled in Sullivan, Ind. Time marched on, he sent me a copy of his Brantzel genealogy, time marched on again, and I found that ship Charlemagne passenger list via Ancestry.com - with Stephen Huber, 1st wife, 1st child, Stephen's mother, and your Kuchler family in it. I figured those names separating the Hubers and the Kuchlers had to have an explanation - they had to tie in somehow. They do! Mathis Brantzel, wife Catherine, and dau. Anna - Mathis and Catherine are ancestors of Bob Martin! We haven't figured out who John Adam is, but he may be the one who was married in Kapsweyer just a couple of years prior to sailing on the Charlemagme. (What happened to his wife?) The Brantzels were from Kapsweyer, too (as was Stephen), and were friends if not relatives (still working on that one). Interesting that a generations later, Barnard (Benjamin) married a Martin, who was not a Brantzel, but Bob's mother, a Brantzel, married a Martin from the same clan! Too much; Convoluted! Bye for now. Sue Kulp

Chris, I found this entry in the St. Louis church records yesterday, while researching my Huber family. It is in the portion of death entries which Fr. Mertz made, and his writing is bad at best:

Catherine Kugler d. _/29/1836 Buffalo [dau. Adam and Anna Maria Kugler] bur. from St. Louis R.C. Church

It would seem that the Catherine that came on the Charlemagne with Michael and Anna Maria was this one????!!!! By her 1st husband, Adam. Have you come across this?

Inasmuch as the microfilms of death records for St. Louis don't begin until 1836, I struck out finding a death for Stephen Huber's 1st wife Margreta and infant dau. Marianna - must have both d. btwn July and Dec. 1835. Marianna was baptised July 2, 1835; Michel Kugeler was a sponsor - the other sponsor was Marianna Vogthe/Voglhe/??. Margreta's maiden name sure looks like Hysenmenger. I don't think that April 13, 1835 birth date is right - it was not in this baptismal record.

Dear Chris,

I have not done much research into the Kuchlers. My greatgrandmother, Christina Kuchler was born in Buffalo, NY in 1857. She was the daughter of Wilhelm Kuchler who, according to his Pafs-Regifter, was born in Winterbach and left from there through Lenden, Rheinpreussen via Bremen to North America with the intention of visiting relatives in 1853. He was 24 years old, single, in good health and had completed his military service.

Somehow, Christina got to Montgomery County, Missouri and married my greatgrandfather, John Greenwell, around 1874 or earlier. They had 9 children and she outlived him by more than 40 years. He was over 30 when he married her and she must have been around 16 or 17. He had lost an arm serving in the 1st Missouri Cavalry (CSA) and was for some time, I think, a sheriff in Montgomery County, MO.

Thats pretty much all that I know about Wilhelm Kuchler. I met a German couple here in Annapolis some time ago and they told me that Kuchler was a fairly common German name. Said it was like Smith in Germany, but I've never heard the name outside of my family so I don't know what to think.

Anyway, thank you very much for getting back to me. I would be interested in any Kuchler information you may have or may come across. Please keep in touch.

Chris,

After your last e-mail, I looked at my records again and found a couple of interesting items. When I was researching my GREENWELL ancestors I had copied a page from the 1870 census for Danville twnshp, MO. Yesterday I re-examined this page and found, located 3 farms away, the William KUCHLER family. The handwriting of the marshall who took the census was so bad that I missed this entry.

I found my great-grandmother Christina listed as 13 years old and I have other records showing that Christina was born in 1857, so this fits.

It also states that William KUCHLER gives Baden as his place of birth and his wife, Catherine being born in Switzerland. He was 42 and she 44 years old at the time of the census. I believe her maiden name was UTZ or

As far as how commom the KUCHLER name is, I'm with you. I've never seen or heard the name outside of Wilhelm. Do you know what it means in german?

Thanks,

Frank

Hello Chris,

I found the following references to Michael Kuchler in "The History of Erie Co., PA" published by Warner, Beers 1884. Don't know if he is your Michael Kuchler or not. The first reference was in the section for Mill Creek Township and the other two are from Fairview Township. Hope these help.

St. Paul's German Lutheran, situated in the southwest part of the township, on land donated by Solomon Weigel, was erected about 1837, at a cost of $600. It was repaired in 1873. The society was organized by Rev. Michael Kuchler, and for a short period services were held in a schoolhouse. Succeeding pastors have been Revs. Bainer, Stuckenberg, Akers, Sagers, Henry Schemberling and J. A. J. Zahn. The last mentioned closed a six-years' pastorate in 1882. At present there is not minister and congregation is small.

Mill Creek

St. Jacob's Evangelical United Church is located on the Ridge road about a mile and a half east of the business part of Fairview Borough. The congregation was organized in the winter of 1852, and the church was built about the same time at a cost of $1,000. The first pastor was the Rev. Michael Kuchler. The present pastor is Rev. C. Gavehling, who has been in charge of the congregation in connection with the one at Girard for the past four years.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church of the village was organized in 1856, with less than a dozen members. This congregation and the one at St. Jacob's on the Ridge road were originally one and the same church society, but at the date given above became separate bodies, owing to some difficulties which arose between the membership and pastor. The Rev Michael Kuchler became the first pastor of this society. The first house of worship was built in 1857, on the outskirts of the borough, and used until the present one was erected in 1878. At present the congregation is without a pastor.

This must be another Michael Kuchler.

K. LAND RECORDS

On 23 December 1839,Jabez Goodell and his wife sold, for $124.46, to Michael Kuchler "all that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the city of Buffalo, County of Erie and State of New York being part of outer lot one hundred and forty-seven as surveyed by Joseph Ellicott and bounded as follows: beginning at a point on the easterly side of Washington street two hundred and seventy feet northerly fromthe intersection of Goodell street with Washington street, thence easterly at right angles with Washington street one hundred and thirty-two feet thence northerly at right angles with the former line twenty-eight feet thence westerly at right angles with Washington street one hundred and thirty-two feet thence southerly bounding on the easterly side of Washington street twenty-eight feet to the place of beginning."

After Michael Kuchler's death about 1844, the property passed to his wife and son who, in 1871, sold it to Catherine Andrle and her half-sister Louisa Dentinger, both daughters of Mary Ann Kuchler, for $800. Then in 1872, Louisa Dentinger sold her half to Catherine and Francis Andrle for one dollar.

In 1878, widow Catherine Andrle sold the lot to her son-in-law Charles' father, Christian Weyand, and purchased another lot on Boston Alley for $1050.

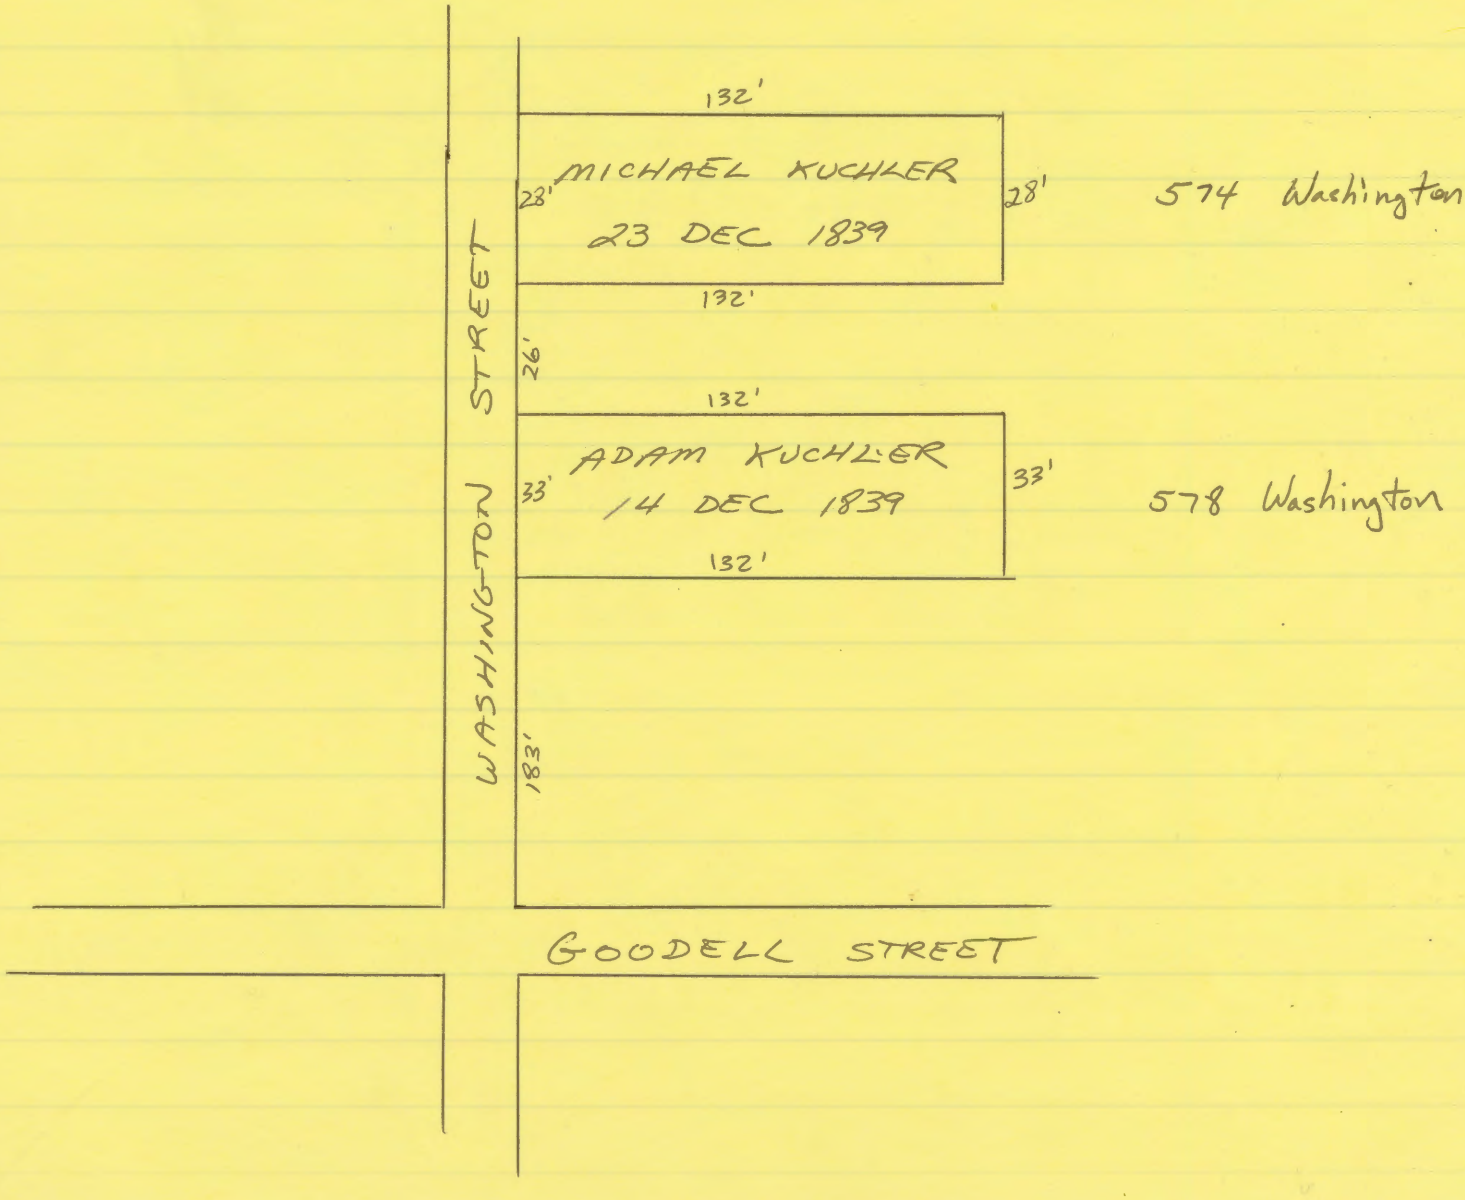
Michael and Adam Kuchler were almost certainly brothers. Both bought land on Washington Street from Jabez Goodell in December 1839.



5-9-78

On 23 December 1839, Jabez Goodell and his wife sold, for $124.46, to Michael Kuddar "all that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the city of Buffalo, County of Erie and State of New York being part of outer lot one hundred and forty seven as surveyed by Joseph Ellicott and bounded as follows: beginning at a point on the easterly side of Washington street two hundred and seventy feet northerly from the intersection of Goodell street with Washington street, thence easterly at right angles with Washington street one hundred and thirty-two feet thence Northerly at right angles with the former line twenty-eight feet thence westerly at right angles with Washington street one hundred and thirty-two feet thence southerly bounding on the easterly side of Washington street twenty-eight feet to the place of beginning."

After Michael Kuddler's death about 1844, the property passed to his wife Mary Ann, nee Huber, (who later married Peter Meyer) and his son Michael and daughter-in-law Caroline.

In 1871, they sold the lot to Catharine Andle and her half-sister Louisa Dentinger, both daughters of Mary Ann Kuddler, for $800. Then in 1872, Louisa Dentinger sold her half to Catharine and Francis Andle for one dollar.

In 1878, widow Catharine Andle sold the lot to her son-in-law Charles' father, Christian Weyand, and purchased another lot on Boston Alley for $1050.

are in need of a good medicine. I can recommend it as one of the very best remedies for catarrh.

W. L. Chambers.

A tonic is a medicine that gives tone to some part of the system. There are different kinds of tonics, but the tonic most needed in this country, where catarrh is so prevalent, is a tonic that operates on the mucous membranes.

Peruna is a tonic to the mucous membranes of the whole body. It gives tone to the capillary circulation which constitutes these delicate membranes.

Hon. J. E. Macias, recent postmaster at Porto Rico, in a letter from 1417 K street, N. W., Washington, D. C. says:

"As a native born Cuban, serving as postmaster in Porto Rico, I contracted yellow fever and have been suffering from the ill effects of that dreadful disease since my return home. I was advised by a friend to use Peruna and I can speak in the highest terms of your remarkable medicine. I feel like a new man and shall take pleasure in recommending it to those similarly afflicted. It is a fine tonic, and is in every way a wonderful medicine. Peruna has become of national importance. It has the record of the greatest catarrh remedy of the age."

Peruna is a specific in its operation upon the mucous membrane. It is a tonic that strikes at the root of all catarrhal affections. It gives tone to the minute blood vessels and the terminal nerve fibres. Catarrh cannot exist long where Peruna is used intelligently. Peruna seeks out catarrh in all the hidden parts of the body.

Address the Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for a free catarrh book.

A NEGRO MURDERED

Work for Another.

Savannah, Ga., March 1.—John Moody, a negro, was hanged and his body riddled with bullets in Bryan county Wednesday night. The deed was done by whitecaps. Moody was under contract to a farmer of the neighborhood to work a certain term with him. Incensed by the negro leaving him to go to another, the farmer who first employed him organized a band of his friends who were sworn to punish the negro. Each man thoroughly disguised himself and at the dead of the night rode to the plantation to which Moody had removed. They went to his house and dragged him to a tree that stood near by and hanged him; then shots were fired into his body.

Suit Against Rockefeller.

Columbus, O., March 1.—A suit in which John D. Rockefeller is defendant involving $375,703 was filed in the Supreme court to-day by Attorney Edward Burke, attorney for James Corrigan, formerly a wealthy vessel owner of Cleveland, who in 1895, being financially embarrassed, pledged 500 shares of Standard Oil stock to Rockefeller to secure a loan of the above sum. Corrigan claims that Rockefeller has been trying to squeeze and force him to sell at a figure much below the value of the shares. Judge Burke has the equity of the Corrigan in the shares assigned to himself.

Quay Talks of Ripper.

Philadelphia, March 1.—Senator Quay and Governor Stone were in this city a short time to-day, stopping off en route from Harrisburg to Washington. The Senator was questioned regarding his opinion of the passage of the reform charter for Pittsburg, Allegheny and Scranton. He said:

"The people of Pittsburg wanted the change and the assembly passed the bill. That was very proper and fitting. The Republican party was pledged by the state convention to enact certain reforms. It is now redeeming those pledges."

Orsay Farmers Dead.

Denison, Iowa, March 1.—Henry Warn, a German farmer, living six miles south of Denison, killed his son William, cremated the body in the house which he fired, and then in the same manner killed Mary and Henry Warn, and burned the place and then shot himself in the burning barn, where his maimed and charred remains were found by searchers this afternoon. No motive for the tragedy is known and it is supposed it was done during temporary insanity.

Scandal Back of Quick Resignation of Two Leaders Recently.

BY CLARK B. KELSEY.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

Chicago, Dec. 22. — The greatest of organized American sports tottered to the very foundation which made it great—the confidence of men and boys in baseball's most illustrious heroes.

When the names of Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker—grandest of baseball's grand old men—were drawn into the whirlpool of a betting scandal yesterday by Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis, none could believe it. To the average baseball fan, bleacherite and grandstand patron alike these charges could be nothing less than "lies, frameups and sacrileges."

But as bulletin followed bulletin from the office of baseball's high commissioner the idol worshippers began to question.

By United Press

Washington, Dec. 22. — A report citing evidence of the expenditure of $2,500,000 in the Pennsylvania Republican primary and declaring charges of irregularities in Oregon, Washington and Missouri primaries unfounded was presented to the senate today by the Reed investigating committee.

The committee merely noted the testimony in the Pennsylvania case and made no recommendations as to possible action in connection with election of William S. Vare, Republican, who spent $800,000, or Senator Pepper, Republican, Pennsylvania, who spent more than $1,500,000.

NAVY CHASER HERE IS SUNK

Make Efforts to Raise Vessel

The subchaser SC-437, one of the naval reserve ships stationed in Erie during the summer as a training ship for local reserves, and which was towed into the east slip Tuesday, sunk early this morning.

Discovery that the ship was sinking was made at 5 o'clock this morning when the caretaker aboard awoke to find himself literally up to his neck in water.

Efforts are being made to raise the boat this afternoon and it is expected the work will be completed today.

(The "Hag" is one of my family names from Reidseltz considering that maybe the Krugers are also from there - may be worth a try.

Notice the obsession on Krugler family to have a daughter "Catharine" survive
(Maybe Krubler was changed somehow to Krugler)

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR ORDER

Your public library may have, or may be able to help you locate, copies of books that may assist your research. Some publications that may be helpful include Passenger and Immigration Lists Index: A Guide to Published Arrival Records of About 500,000 Passengers Who Came to the United States and Canada in the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, and Nineteenth Centuries, by P. William Philby; San Francisco Ship Passenger Lists, by Louis J. Rasmussen; Railway Passenger Lists of Overland Trains to San Francisco and the West, also by Rasmussen; and the Morton-Allen Directory of European Steamship Arrivals that lists ships arriving in the Port of New York for the period 1890-1930, and the ports of Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Boston, 1904-1926. The pamphlet Genealogical Records in the National Archives has additional information on passenger arrival records, as does the book Guide to Genealogical Research in the National Archives.

We can only search for an entry based on the information you provided above. Limitations of staff time prevent the National Archives from making comprehensive searches of passenger lists or indexes. PLEASE NOTE: When you send more than one form at a time, each form is handled separately. Therefore, you may not receive all of your replies at the same time. Allow a minimum of 8 to 10 weeks for processing your order. Please address inquiries about your order to the General Reference Branch at the address below or call us at 202-501-5170. More information about the availability of records pertaining to passenger arrival records or family histories may be found in our free genealogical information leaflets and forms. NATIONAL ARCHIVES ORDER FOR COPIES OF SHIP PASSENGER ARRIVAL RECORDS

Dear Researcher,

Before completing the form, please read this page for ordering instructions and general information about the records that can be ordered with this form. Mail order photocopying service using this form is available ONLY from General Reference Branch (NNRG), National Archives and Records Administration,7th and Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20408. For more information, please write to us at the address above.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

WHAT WE HAVE: The National Archives has inbound Federal ship passenger arrival records dating back to 1820 for most east coast and gulf coast ports and a few lists dating back to 1800 for Philadelphia. Ship passenger lists in our custody are not complete. Fire, dampness, or other causes destroyed many records in the 19th century before the creating agencies transferred them to the National Archives. During the 19th century, no law required passenger arrival records to be kept for persons entering the United States by land from Canada or Mexico. No law required the keeping of outbound passenger lists.

WHAT WE CAN SEARCH: Passenger Indexes: We can search indexes if you supply the following information: full name of the passenger, port of entry, and approximate date of arrival. The following major indexes exist: Baltimore (1820–1952), Boston (1848–91 and 1902–20), New Orleans (1853–1952), New York (1820–46 and 1897–1948), Philadelphia (1800–1948), and minor ports (1820–74 and 1890–1924). Unindexed Passenger Lists: We cannot search these lists without more specific information than we require for index searches. To search unindexed passenger lists through 1892, you must supply port of entry, name of the vessel, approximate date of arrival, and the full name of the passenger. For those lists, we can also make a search with port of embarkation, exact date of arrival, port of entry, and the full name of the passenger. To search unindexed lists after 1892, we need the port of entry, the name of the vessel, the exact date of arrival, the full name of the passenger, and the names and ages of accompanying passengers, if any. PLEASE NOTE: There is no index for New York for the period 1847 through 1896 or for the period 1949 through the present.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: You may order copies of an entire passenger list by making a specific request. Write to the General Reference Branch at the address above. We will notify you of the cost. In addition, you or your representatives may search records that are too voluminous for the National Archives staff to search. We do not maintain a list of persons who do research for a fee. However, many researchers advertise their services in genealogical periodicals, usually available in libraries. Naturalization (Citizenship) Records: Naturalization records are separate from passenger arrival lists. The National Archives has copies of naturalization papers (1798–1906) for Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Maine and original records (1802–1926) for the District of Columbia. For information about citizenship granted elsewhere through September 26, 1906, write to the Federal, State, or municipal court that issued the naturalization. The Immigration and Naturalization Service, Washington, DC 20536 can furnish information on naturalizations that occurred after September 26, 1906.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THIS FORM

Use a separate NATF Form 81 for each passenger arrival record. Remove this instruction sheet. Print your name (last, first, middle) and address in the block provided at the bottom of the form, which is your mailing label. The information must be legible on all copies. Keep the PINK copy of the form for your records. Mail the remaining three pages of the form to: General Reference Branch (NNRG), National Archives and Records Administration, 7th and Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, DC 20408. Please allow 8 to 10 weeks for processing your order. DO NOT SEND PAYMENT WITH THIS FORM. When we search your order, we will make photocopies of records that relate to your request. For credit card orders, we will mail the copies immediately. For other type of orders, we will invoice you for the cost of these copies and hold them up to 45 days pending receipt of your payment.
